

Information Pack

Welcome to South Leicester Birdwatchers.

By offering membership to the group, our aim is to support your interest in bird watching by organising various programmes, including:

- Monthly meetings with guest speakers.
- Field Trips to a variety of sites, in guided groups.
- Organised events and activities.

Officially formed in September 2006, South Leicester Birdwatchers originated after two night school classes saw their tutor retire from teaching. Over the years, both new and regular class attendees had become friends, sharing the delights of their hobby. Many didn't want to see this disappear, in particular the unique style of learning that had developed, so the opportunity to form an organised group was taken and the vision of that group is to carry on in the same manner – friendly, relaxed and hopefully informative but exciting!

We are here to help you become a more confident birdwatcher by increasing your knowledge and understanding of all topics ornithological.

So whether you are a novice or a seasoned campaigner, you are warmly welcomed to join in with our group activities.

Enclosed in this information pack, you will find:

Club Constitution and Rules.

Membership Form.

The latest edition of our Newsletter – issued quarterly, it contains latest announcements, field trip and sighting reports, members photos and other articles.
